mem'ries that re-fuse to die. — I can't get a-way—from a vis-ion that brings —

In-ti-mate glimps-es of in-ti-mate things, A voice in my heart like a torch-singer sings, "I won-der who's kiss-ing her now?" THE HOUSE IS HAUNTED by the ech-o of your fav'-rite song, — The place is clut-tered up with ros-es that have lived too long — much too long. The ceil-ing is white, but the shad-ows are black, — A ghost in my heart says, "shell nev-er come back!" THE HOUSE IS HAUNTED by the ech-o of your last good-bye. — The
